

JOE BOEHLING GOES ON MOUND AGAINST JENNINGS' CLUB TODAY

Richmond Southpaw Has Won His Last Three Games and May Take Contest for Nationals—Other Gossip.

BY J. ED GRILLO.

Special Dispatch to The Star.
DETROIT, Mich., July 27.—Joe Boehling, who has won his last three starts, will be the pitcher for the Tigers today, as Cunningham, the spit-ball twirler, is expected to be the fellow to Joe the mound for the Tigers. Boehling has been displaying splendid form of late, and if he has any support he should do what Harper and Johnson failed to do—win a game, from the Jennings crew.

It was first supposed that Harper would be sent back to make amends for his failure on the opening day, but Griffith for some reason or other changed his mind and decided to work Boehling, for whom he is gradually gaining a lot of respect, because of the effective work the southpaw is doing.

While it is true that Johnson should not have been scored on in the first two innings, when the Tigers got two runs, it is understood that the two runs which the Tigers got in the eighth were the result of Johnson's failure to keep the ball away from Veach when the hit-and-run was on in the eighth inning. Veach hitting the ball after Almsmith had given the waste sign.

Though Dubuc has been easy picking for most of the other teams that he has faced, he is still capable of winning from the Griffins, and his performance of saving two games in two days is nothing short of remarkable. The first day Dubuc stepped into the breach when Boland was in trouble, pitched four innings and held the Griffins in check until the game was won. Yesterday he pitched five innings, and in the fourth after two were out and four runs had been scored, and Morgan hit him for a single, sending Johnson home from third. After that he was invincible, and while the Griffins got three additional safeties, two of which were hit by Johnson, he held them in check until they seemed to be a chance for a run to end the tie.

The drubbing which Willie Mitchell was given was terrific. The Nationals have been hitting him hard, and he has been in the matter of hitting long flies where the outfielders could reach them, kept him out of trouble until the fourth, when he was given a good licking. Milan started this inning by singling, but Rice forced him. Then came the double, which was a double to center. Griffith followed suit and brought home a couple of runs. The Nationals then went on to win. Mitchell retired, and then Dubuc served out to Morgan's liking and the batter drove it to left, sending Johnson home with the fifth run of the inning.

Mitchell had won three games for the Tigers in the east and he was considered to be in splendid form, but

HIGH-CLASS GOLF MATCH

McLeod and Spencer to Play Burgess Brothers Over Washington Suburban Club Course.

Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock the golfers of the capital city will witness their favorite professionals in action at the Washington Suburban Club. Fred McLeod and the home pro, Jimmie Spencer, will oppose the Burgess brothers, Jack of Chevy Chase and Dave of Bangor, over the nine-hole course, and it is expected that a large gallery of the city's golf fans will be on hand to watch the match. A match of this sort has been wanted for some time, and it is anticipated that the contests will be continued. Jack Burgess has a score the other day over the Chevy Chase course of 75, which shows he is in good shape, and his brother Dave, in a match at Bangor on Sunday, had 77 over the difficult Cabin John course.

McLeod's ability is well known and he has entirely recovered from the fit of hooking his tee shots which spoiled his game for a short time. He was able to return to the open championship at Minneapolis.

Spencer is one of the finest players in this section, although he has not had much chance to show his class near this city, as previous to coming south he had been at the Norwich (Conn.) course, where he made a good playing record. It is thought he will make the better-known pros at the top of the list, and in order to keep up with him, as he is on his own course and is thoroughly familiar with all the local difficulties.

Maxwell R. Marston of Baltimore, who won the president's cup at the Ekwanok tourney last year, again led the field in the qualification round yesterday with his score of 77 over the Manchester course. Max had a little streak of unsteadiness at the end of his round, but his score was still good enough to put him in the final. He was followed by the two strokes, the course had been changed a bit from last year, and he played last year and the changes make it at least two strokes harder. Heavy rain had fallen during the day, and this made the ground very hard to score low on. One of the surprises of the qualification round was the failure of the Hanford Gardeners to get into the first flight. Gardner was runner-up in the Shawnee tourney last week.

Louis Martucci, the one-armed wonder of the links, was defeated by Tom Kerrian, the pro at the Swanwick Club, in a special match played yesterday at Swanwick. Martucci made a very creditable showing against the long-driving home pro and was only beaten on the seventeenth green after Kerrian had scored a 76 to his 82. The best part of Martucci's game was his short putts and chip shots. If he failed to make the green in the usual number of strokes he just clipped up close to the hole and holed the putt. On only one green did he miss a short putt, and he holed at least a dozen of the frying-pan four, five and six footers. Kerrian played good golf, and his 76 was two strokes above the record for the course and only three above par.

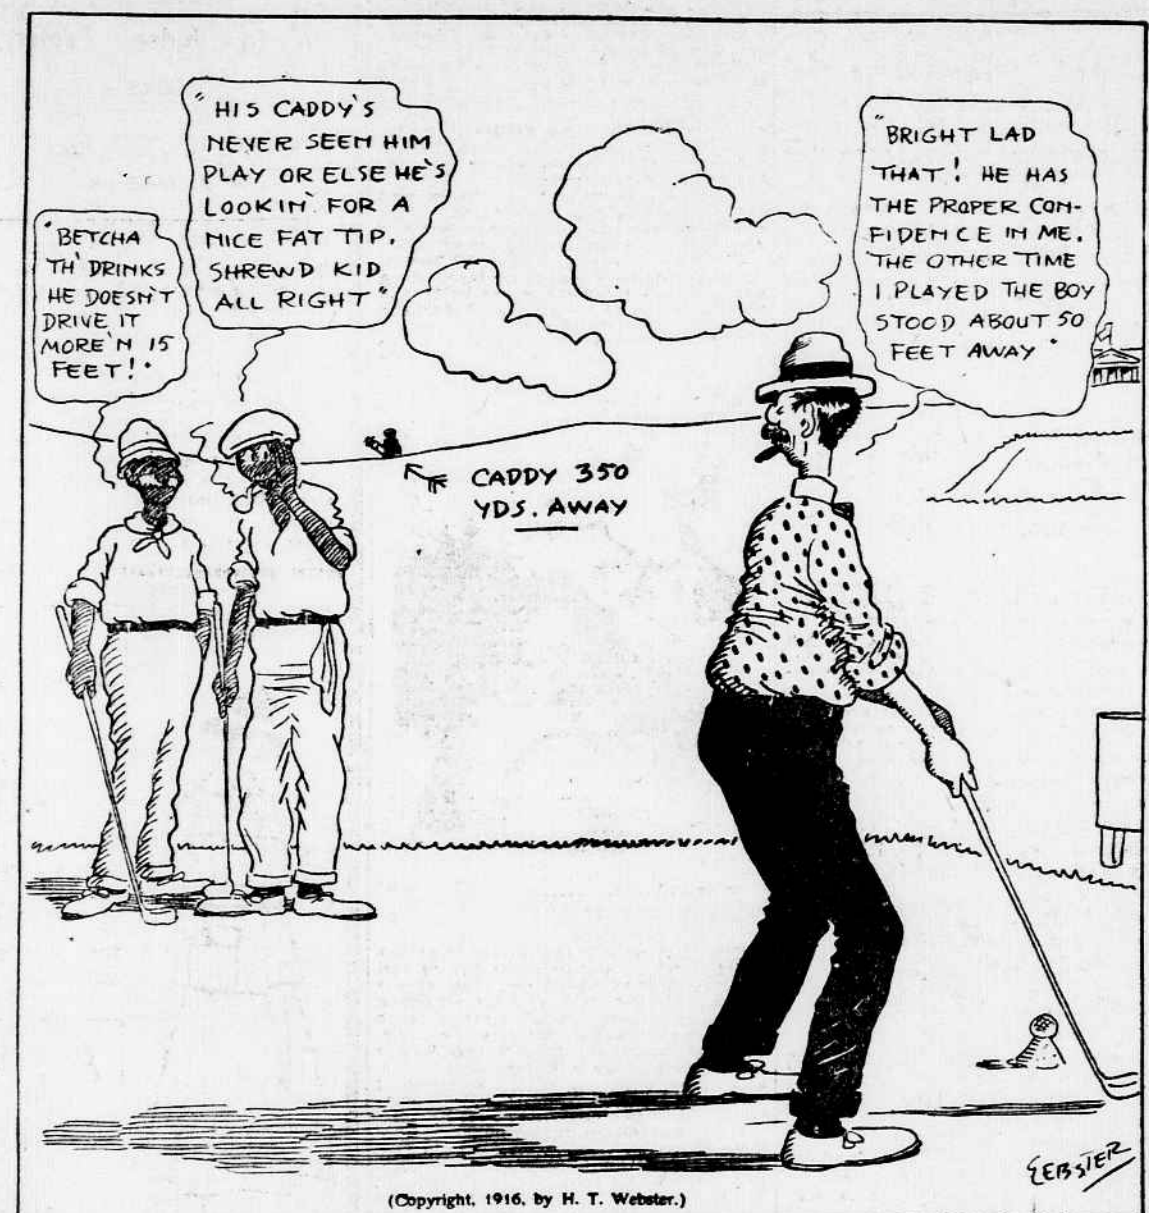

WON'T GIVE UP SHOCKER.

Leafs Believe They Can Win Flag With Him.

NEW YORK, July 27.—In view of a report that the Yankees might recall International League club, McCaffery, who they intend to keep Shocker until the end of the International League's season, inasmuch as the Toronto club has an excellent chance to win the pennant. According to base ball law the Yankees cannot recall Shocker until the Toronto club's season has been completed. But the Toronto club has a right to release Shocker to Col. Ruppert and Capt. Huston in exchange for other players. McCaffery has been in the Yankees' line-up since last week. Ralph C. Carroll of Kansas City, who was traded to the Yankees, was reported to plan to send Keating and Martucci to his club to obtain Shocker's release.

NO LOOK IN DETROIT

Jinx Seems to Pursue Nationals in Tigertown.

DROP ANOTHER CONTEST

Jennings' Clan Gets Ten-Inning Victory Over Walter Johnson—Score, 6 to 5.

Special Dispatch to The Star.

DETROIT, Mich., July 27.—It may happen that the Griffins will win a game here this season, but just now the same jinx which followed the team last year in Boston, seems to be prevalent here, for up to date not a single victory has been won on the local grounds. The score again yesterday was 6 to 5 against the Griffins.

Yesterday's game was virtually a repetition of the game of the day preceding, when the visitors got five runs in two innings and then were beaten out in the ninth. Yesterday the visitors scored five runs in one inning, overcame a three-run lead, which was due to poor fielding, the team had put up behind Walter Johnson, and yet was beaten out in the tenth inning because of an error by Almsmith, who, after catching Veach's pop-up in front of the plate, tried to double up Crawford, who started the inning with a hit, threw wild and Crawford reached second and scored with two out. But for the mis-play of the catcher, Crawford would have been either out or stationed at first base, from which point he could not have scored on Young's long single, which, however, sent him home with the winning run.

Should Not Have Scored.

Johnson should not have been scored on in either the eighth or ninth innings. Almsmith's error, which sent Veach single, and Crawford hit to Morgan, who had a double play in hand, but his throw to McBride was wide and Bush scored, while Burns reached third and Crawford scored. Veach was walked and then Heinman hit a long fly to right, allowing Burns to score. Young walked and McKee hit in the second. Johnson picked up Mitchell's sacrifice and threw it to second, but neither McBride nor Morgan was covering, and the ball rolled out to center field.

Young got all the way home on the error. In the eighth Johnson was hit hard. He got rid of the first man up, but Crawford hit safely. Veach got a sharp line drive to right, which was caught by a triple, and then Heinman singled to right, scoring Veach with the tying run. In the ninth Dubuc started with a single to right. Veach also hit safely, but Almsmith and McBride caught Dubuc's blooping off second and as a result no runs were scored. Shanks started the eighth with a hit. Shanks moved him up to second with a sacrifice, but he foolishly tried to steal third and was thrown out. Almsmith walked, but was thrown out trying to steal third.

In the tenth Foster led off with a hit. Milan's out had placed Foster on second. He was forced to drive him home, but Dubuc took no chance with the rightfielder and intentionally walked him.

The five-run inning was a hard-hitting season. Milan singled and after Rice had forced him, Shanks and Shanks doubled. Almsmith struck out, and after McBride walked, Johnson hit for three bases. What happened in the tenth has been described.

ATHLETIC BODIES AT PEACE.

Catholic and Amateur Unions Agree on Registration System.

NEW YORK, July 27.—The restoration of peace between the Catholic Young Men's National Union and the Amateur Athletic Union was announced here today. The athletic league of the Catholic organization formerly held membership in the A. A. U. as an allied body, but differences arose over the registration system in vogue with the athletic league, and in 1914 the alliance was canceled.

The new alliance does not grant the Catholic Young Men's Union separate registration, but its athletes are allowed to compete among themselves without A. A. U. registration. To compete in open games sanctioned by the A. A. U. they must produce the registration card of that organization. Of the 248 clubs enrolled in the Catholic union, 125 are at present also enrolled in the various district associations of the A. A. U.

LONG RUN BY L. GERMAN.

Shatters 168 Straight Targets in Betterton Shoot.

BALTIMORE, Md., July 27.—Lester German's unfinished run of 168 targets featured the second day of the annual trapshooting tournament of Capt. Jim Malone yesterday at Betterton. The crack Aberdeen professional had a score of 97 out of a possible 100 the opening day, and then came back yesterday and led the field again with a score of 197 out of 200. Beauchamp, who led the amateurs Tuesday, was again high gun with 191. Other scores were: Bartlett, 185; Osborne, 184; Malone, 181; Dickey, 178; Minnick, 175; Hawkins, 175; Mitchell, 175; McInnis, 177; Waller, 177; Bachman, 154; Getty, 151; Kinder, 135; Smith, 132. Other scores at 50 targets were: Brice, 39; Shahan, 39; Dr. Price, 38; Price, 38; Owens, 29; Whitman, 31, and Howard, 30.

COOPER SEEKS SALARY.

Phillies' Suboutfielder Sues "Fed" Club Owners for $7,000.

NEW YORK, July 27.—The Ward family, which formerly owned the Brooklins, were made defendants in suits yesterday, one of them filed by Outfielder Claude Cooper of the Phillies, the other by Bill Bradley, who managed the club in 1914.

Cooper claims he had an "ironclad" contract for three years, calling for $7,000 per season, while Bradley says his pay was to have been $7,500 for three years. Each admits that the 1915 salary was paid, but asserts that nothing has been done so far toward paying the 1916 salary. Cooper now is receiving $4,000 a year from the Phillies. He is willing that the $4,000 should apply against the $7,000, but he wants to get the other $3,000 from the Wards. Bradley, however, has been jobless since the advent of peace. He wants the $7,500 in full.

PRINTERS HOPING TO CAPTURE GAME FROM ROSEDALE TEAM

Manager Love Saves Star Pitcher, Bennett, for Battle With Leaders in Rosedale League Today—Other Gossip.

BY H. C. BYRD.

The Printers are to go against the strongest team in the Rosedale League today—the Rosedale. The Typesetters have been looking forward for some time to this clash with the leaders of the circuit, and they intend to have their strongest line-up on the field in an endeavor to plant a defeat against the club which seems almost sure to represent the league in the post-season series for the championship of the District.

The Printers played yesterday, and took a 4-to-1 beating from the Gibraltars, but their star pitcher, Bennett, was not used. Manager Love saved him to go against the Rosedale this afternoon, and the leader of the Typesetters shows not the least hesitancy in saying that he thinks his team has pretty nearly an even chance to win.

The Printers are very anxious now to have their full team on the field for every game, as they want to practice for the series in which they play at Indianapolis for the championship of the typographical unions of the United States. The local men think they have a fair chance to capture the honor, and are leaving no stone unturned in their preparations for the event. The team probably will leave Washington a week from today, and will be gone about six days. Garry Hermann, president of the Cincinnati Reds and chairman of the national commission, donates a trophy to the winner of the series each year. Hermann started life as a printer and holds a union card now.

In five innings in the Government League yesterday the Marines beat Agriculture by 10 to 1. The Soldiers scored two counts in the first, six in the second, none in the third, but got the catch in the fourth and fifth. The one man the Aggies got across the plate went over in the first. Denham held Agriculture to four hits and was never in danger. The Marines had little trouble getting their bats against the offerings of the players who went on the mound for the losers. Mims and Williams led the Soldiers in batting, with two safe drives each. Denham, creditably, pitched very creditably, and fielded his position well.

The Gibraltars found the Printers to their liking and won in the Rosedale League by the score mentioned in a previous paragraph. The Typesetters were unable to hit the delivery of Nevitt, who allowed only three safeties and fanned nine. The Soldiers, however, were unable to hit the delivery of Nevitt, who allowed only three safeties and fanned nine. The Soldiers, however, were unable to hit the delivery of Nevitt, who allowed only three safeties and fanned nine.

Dalley and Johnson engaged in a tangle in the Railroad Y. M. C. A. League, the former winning his game for the Auditors over Union Station by 3 to 2. Dalley was hit safely by the Station batters only once, and four drives into territory where no player could get the ball was the best that the Auditors could do off Thompson. The contest was called at the end of the first half of the fifth.

Five games are scheduled in the amateur circuits for this afternoon. The Potomac Government, Terminal Railroad Y. M. C. A., East Washington Sunday School and Rosedale leagues are the organizations in which contests are booked. The Machinists and Congress Heights will look in the first-mentioned circuit; Treasury and Commerce to play in the next. Reformation and Keller are booked in the church body, B. O. and General Officers of the four groups, and the Printers and Rosedale at Rosedale.

The Fort Hunt nine is to go to Clarendon Saturday afternoon for a game with the team representing the town across the river. The contest should be a very creditable exhibition. Lefty Henderson probably will do the pitching for Clarendon.

The recently organized Washington Amateur League opened yesterday with a game between the S. S. C. nine and the Young Helpers. The score of the contest was 5 to 0 in favor of the first-mentioned team. Better hitting was the main factor in its victory, eleven safeties being made by the winner against six for the loser. Catlin, pitching for the victor, allowed six hits and struck out fourteen, a truly creditable performance. Wyatt, former Western High player, was substituted for the winners, connecting for a double.
